

January 8, 2017—The Epiphany of the Lord

Alleluia! Alleluia!
We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

~Matthew 2:1-12

*Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!
Your light has come,
the glory of the Lord shines upon you.*

GIFTS WE BRING

Today's First Reading begins with the prophet Isaiah's announcement that our light has come — the glory of the Lord shines upon us. Just as the Magi followed the light of the star to Bethlehem, so, too, do we follow the light that is the Lord.

Like the Magi, we came searching for Christ and that search has brought us here, to this holy place, where we are bathed in the light of God's eternal word. As we continue on our journey in this new year to discover Christ manifested in so many ways, and in so many people and events; may love, peace, and justice - the gifts from our Lord - be manifested in our lives.

Rejoice and sing, O you people of the Promise, for greater than any gift of the Magi is the gift of yourselves given to those you love and to the world.

Our parish will be hosting Family Promise guests:
January 15-22

If you are able to volunteer, please sign-up on the dry erase board in the church vestibule.

Please remember to keep the families and volunteers in your prayers. Thank you!

Epiphany

God is shining forth in the most unwanted and unsuspected places

Once their quest for the newborn King was satisfied, the Magi knew it was time to return home. Alerted through a dream that they were not to return to Herod, they went home "by another way". Just as when we encounter Christ throughout the many moments of our lives, we are always changed by the encounter and have to go home by a different way. As Christmas has given way to a new year, may we allow all that has happened to sink in. Perhaps now we will find the time for all the reflection that the season of Advent tried to prepare us for. What was it that the Magi found at home and how were their lives transformed by the journey they undertook? We can only speculate because Scripture has no ready answer for us, but through their worship of the Lord, we can surmise that the Magi became living signs of Christ in their lives, their homes and their towns. May our lives reflect the same for having been touched by the Christ Child again this holy season. Thank you, Lord, for inviting us on this continuing journey with you for it is only through you that we find our way home.
