

September 11, 2016 – Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Alleluia, alleluia!

Let your face shine upon your servant;
and teach me your laws.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them he addressed this parable. "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it? And when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.

"Or what woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it? And when she does find it, she calls together her friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found the coin that I lost.' In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

~Luke 15:1-10

Diocese of Helena WORKSHOP on the order of Christian funerals

OFFERING WORSHIP, PRAISE, AND THANKSGIVING TO GOD FOR THE GIFT OF A LIFE RETURNED TO GOD.

George Leo Thomas, Bishop of Helena, invites every person of the Diocese of Helena Parishes to discover anew the manner in which we Catholics express our faith in eternal life as we bid farewell to those we love. It is his hope that parishioners, parish staffs, priests, deacons, religious, parish administrators, Catholic School personnel, funeral directors and cemetery personnel will gather for the workshop which will help support us all as we grieve, serve and care for one another at the time of death. The ongoing implementation of the Order of Christian Funerals with the particular norms for our Diocese is an integral ministry in the life of our parishes. Your presence and participation helps us grow in this ministry of compassion and consolation.
