

September 18, 2016 – Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property. He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.' The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.' He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

~Luke 16:1-13

Karl Rossten, Montana's Suicide Prevention Coordinator for the Department of Health and Human Services, will be speaking at St Anthony Parish Life Center on Sept 20 from 6-8pm. Karl is a dynamic speaker with information on the shocking suicide rate in Montana. Question and answer session to follow presentation.

Diocese of Helena WORKSHOP on the order of Christian funerals

OFFERING WORSHIP, PRAISE, AND THANKSGIVING TO GOD FOR THE GIFT OF A LIFE RETURNED TO GOD.

George Leo Thomas, Bishop of Helena, invites every person of the Diocese of Helena Parishes to discover anew the manner in which we Catholics express our faith in eternal life as we bid farewell to those we love. It is his hope that parishoners, parish staffs, priests, deacons, religious, parish administrators, Catholic School personnel, funeral directors and cemetery personnel will gather for the workshop which will help support us all as we grieve, serve and care for one another at the time of death. The ongoing implementation of the Order of Christian Funerals with the particular norms for our Diocese is an integral ministry in the life of our parishes. Your presence and participation helps us grow in this ministry of compassion and consolation.
