

September 4, 2016 – Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Alleluia, alleluia!

Let your face shine upon your servant;
and teach me your laws.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, 'This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.'

Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops? But if not, while he is still far away, he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms. In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

~Luke 14:25-33

In every age, O LORD, you have been our refuge.

Twenty-third Sunday in

ST. ANTHONY PARISH 1921-2016

September 4, 2016

During the month of September, we honor Mary under the title of Our Lady of Sorrows.

This month, let us bring to Mary all our sorrows, knowing that she understands what it is to suffer.

Happy Labor Day Weekend! Most of us are still clinging to summer's delights—evenings on the deck, outdoor grilling, maybe a swim. This weekend in Rome, the Church celebrates a "Jubilee for Workers and Volunteers of Mercy", reminding us of Wisdom's advice. Whatever our 'timid deliberations' or 'unsure plans', nothing should keep us from voluntarily and generously giving ourselves in loving service to all in need.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK Each week the bulletin poses a question for discussion or reflection with your family and friends. This week's question:

How must I transform myself to live Jesus' gospel so that I can offer everyone his generous, compassionate, self-sacrificing love?

Let no one ever come to you without leaving better and happier. Be the living expression of God's kindness: kindness in your face, kindness in your eyes, kindness in your smile.

Diocese of Helena WORKSHOP on the order of Christian funerals

OFFERING WORSHIP, PRAISE, AND THANKSGIVING TO GOD FOR THE GIFT OF A LIFE RETURNED TO GOD.

George Leo Thomas, Bishop of Helena, invites every person of the Diocese of Helena Parishes to discover anew the manner in which we Catholics express our faith in eternal life as we bid farewell to those we love. It is his hope that parishioners, parish staffs, priests, deacons, religious, parish administrators, Catholic School personnel, funeral directors and cemetery personnel will gather for the workshop which will help support us all as we grieve, serve and care for one another at the time of death. The ongoing implementation of the Order of Christian Funerals with the particular norms for our Diocese is an integral ministry in the life of our parishes. Your presence and participation helps us grow in this ministry of compassion and consolation.

Compassionate Lord, we pray for those who have been devastated by recent natural disasters around the globe. We remember those who have lost their lives so suddenly. We hold in our hearts the families forever changed by grief and loss. Bring them consolation and comfort. Surround them with our prayers for strength. Bless those who have survived and heal their memories of trauma and devastation. May they have the courage to face the long road of rebuilding ahead. We ask your blessing on all those who have lost their homes, their livelihoods, their security and their hope. Bless the work of relief agencies and those providing emergency assistance. May their work be guided by the grace and strength that comes from You alone. Help us to respond with generosity in prayer, in assistance, in aid to the best of our abilities. Keep our hearts focused on the needs of those affected, even after the crisis is over. We ask this in Jesus' name, Amen.

There are a variety of ways in which you can donate to charities providing relief to those affected by natural disaster. Please donate with an open and compassionate heart.
