

October 30, 2016 – Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Let's pray for our departed
loved ones.

Eternal
rest, grant
unto them
O Lord,
and let perpetual
light shine
upon them.
Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia!

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia, alleluia!

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost." ~Luke 19:1-10

I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

All Souls' Day

I am the Resurrection,

to believe in me means life,
in spite of death,
and all who believe
and live in me
shall never die.

- John 11:25-26

All Saints Day

The challenge of sainthood is to go where love takes us.

Prayer for All Saints Day
All you holy saints of God, we join our prayers of praise to yours this day.

With you, we sing of God's goodness, rejoice in God's mercy and celebrate God's incredible love.

Teach us to live as you lived always thinking of others, always recognizing our weakness, always rejoicing in God's gifts, always closely following Jesus.

Blessed are you, happy are you,
all you holy saints of God.

Pray for us that someday we too may be among God's holy ones.

Amen.
