

February 26 2017—The Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Alleluia! Alleluia!

The word of God is living and effective;
discerning reflections and thoughts of the heart.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Jesus said to his disciples:

"No one can serve two masters.

He will either hate one and love the other,
or be devoted to one and despise the other.

You cannot serve God and mammon.

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life,
what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear.

Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?

Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap,
they gather nothing into barns,
yet your heavenly Father feeds them.

Are not you more important than they?

Can any of you by worrying add a single moment
to your life-span?

Why are you anxious about clothes?

Learn from the way the wild flowers grow.

They do not work or spin.

But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them.

If God so clothes the grass of the field,
which grows today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow,
will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith?

So do not worry and say,

'What are we to eat?'

or 'What are we to drink?'

or 'What are we to wear?'

All these things the pagans seek.

Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all.

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness,
and all these things will be given you besides.

Do not worry about tomorrow;

tomorrow will take care of itself.

Sufficient for a day is its own evil."

-Matthew 6:24-34

*Rest in God alone,
my soul.*

LENT

Why Does Lent Seem So Negative?

Starting with the somber symbol of ashes, Lent indeed has its negative side, in part because Lenten discipline aims to make us aware of our own weakness and sin and need for conversion and renewal. We won't seek a doctor if we don't know we're sick. We won't seek help unless we realize how much we need help. But the purpose of Lenten discipline isn't negative. Self-denial is necessary, said St. Augustine, because, unless we can give up what is good, many of us cannot avoid committing evil when tempted. Self-denial helps us empty ourselves so that we can be filled with God, helps us hunger and thirst for the food and drink our souls need. We freely give up good for the promise of something better. We should not undertake Lenten disciplines as if by themselves they heal us, make us holy or earn God's favor. Rather, their purpose is to open our hearts so that the Holy Spirit can work in us.

Knights of Columbus Food Drive for Missoula Food Bank

On the first weekend of each month, the Knights of Columbus Council 1021 will be conducting a food drive for Missoula Food Bank. As a BONUS, the Montana Food Bank Second Harvest program has agreed to match one dollar per pound of food collected. The money will be used by the Missoula Food Bank to purchase perishables.

Our next Food Drive Sunday will be March 4-5th.

Here are some suggested foods based upon your last name:

- A-D Cereals, pasta
- E-J Sugar, flour, baking needs
- K-O Canned meats, canned veggies, pasta sauces
- P-T Peanut butter, jelly, juices, canned fruit
- U-Z Condiments (ketchup, mustard, pickles...)

You are always welcome to donate non-perishable foods of your choice. If you wish to make a financial donation, or if you forgot your food item and would like to make a donation, a receptacle will be available. Thank you for your consideration.
