

May 14, 2017 – Fifth Sunday of Easter

Alleluia! Alleluia!

I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word:
John 14:1-12

Our Gospels for the next few weeks are taken from Jesus' 'farewell discourse' at the Last Supper in John's Gospel. Today Jesus reassures Thomas, Philip, and us, who don't understand where Jesus is going, much less how to follow him there. All we have to do is focus on knowing and believing in him, and we will find the way. It will not be easy to do, but that is why we have our community with us, to help us. See how the early church community sorted out a big issue in today's first reading? We can do the same. Let us listen and learn how.

Question of the week: Drawing on the strength of today's word and Eucharist, how can I offer creativity and understanding as a path toward resolution?

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

TO THE NATIONS MISSIONS

is a Franciscan missionary ministry that was founded in 2010 when Stephen H. Smith OFS, a retired school teacher, felt called to respond to the earthquake in Haiti rather than sit and watch it on TV. Over the years, many have been called to join Stephen in Haiti and Uganda, and soon to be Jamaica and Columbia. I, too, felt called to this ministry, and will be once again leaving my comfort zone and traveling to Africa to reach out and feed the hungry, clothe the naked, provide shelter to the homeless, visit the sick and those in prison all while showing the love of Jesus Christ to all His creation. If you would like to learn more of this amazing ministry, I will be holding an event in the Parish Life Center on Sunday, May 21 following the 11am Mass. Thank you for your support. ~John Neumann OFS.
