

May 21, 2017 – Sixth Sunday of Easter

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Whoever loves me will keep my word,
says the Lord,
and my Father will love him
and we will come to him.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word:
John 14:15-21

In the Gospel today we will hear Jesus speak of another Advocate give to us by the Father, the Spirit of truth. Our first reading from the Acts of the Apostles records the coming of that same Spirit into the early Christian community in Samaria. As we hear these readings today, let us reflect on the ways that we too have not been left as orphans and enjoy the presence of the Spirit here in our community and in our lives, helping us to keep God's commandments and share the Good News.

Question of the Week: Remembering my Confirmation anointing and Saint Peter's challenge to be able to explain my Christian hope, how will I seek out a faith-enriching resource and set aside time to study it?

Who are the people who have helped you believe?
Whom do you help?

Let all the earth cry out with joy to the Lord!
