

May 28, 2017 – Ascension of the Lord

Alleluia! Alleluia!

I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Matthew 28:16-20 The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: "Why are you standing there looking at the sky?" asks the angel of the disciples who have just witnessed the Ascension. Indeed, they could ask us the same question. Listening to the Word of God today, let us focus on God's invitation to continue Christ's mission in the world. What do these sacred scriptures ask of you now, this week?

Question of the week: What did it mean for the disciples to be witnesses? To what were they supposed to witness and how were they equipped to achieve it? (Think about both what Jesus gave them before he ascended, and also what they received after he ascended.)

To which periphery of my life is the Ascension's mission impetus sending me?

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy!

A PRAYER FOR THE ASCENSION OF CHRIST

Look on us, Lord, and let all the darkness of our souls disappear before the beams of your brightness.
Fill us with your holy love,
and open to us the treasures of your wisdom.
We seek your face,
turn your face to us
and show us your glory.
Then our longing will be satisfied and our peace will be complete.
Amen.

~St. Augustine of Hippo
