

August 27, 2017 – Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Alleluia! Alleluia!

You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Matthew 16:13-20 Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: Peter's reply to Jesus' query in today's Gospel brings a surprising response from Jesus. Because of his faith, Peter is given great responsibility. Listening to today's readings, perhaps we will hear God Challenging us too with unexpected responsibility. What is God inviting you to do today?

Question of the week: How does Peter's continuing presence in the church through the ministry of Pope Francis impact my life of witness?

*Lord, your love is eternal;
do not forsake
the work of your hands.*
