

October 15, 2017 – Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eye of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes.

Matthew 22: 1-10 Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests."

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: The image of the banquet is an important one in the scriptures. Most of the time it refers to God's great generosity and lavish kindness. In the New Testament, Jesus uses the banquet as an image of the heavenly kingdom to come. As we listen to these readings today, what does the image of the banquet say to you?

Question of the week: What specific threads of 'charity in action' are woven together to fashion the 'wedding garment' needed for my presence at Jesus' feast? Is it time

Preparation for Part Two—Parish Input and Prioritization

October 18, 2017 • 6:30pm
St Anthony Parish • Parish Life Center

In our upcoming meeting we will review the feedback from throughout the Diocese that was gleaned from Part One of the Parish Input Process. That feedback reports on the initiative that were recommended for inclusion in the next five-year Pastoral Plan and brings together the input from our parish and parishes throughout the Diocese as they met in the spring. We will consider the list of proposals from broad diocesan feedback and recommend our top priorities to the Diocesan Pastoral Council in the next step of identifying and focusing the initiatives that will take the diocese forward in these next five years. ALL ARE WELCOME even if you were not able to be part of Part One of the Parish Input Process.

*Receive, Lord, in tranquility and peace,
the souls of your servants who have Departed out of this present life to be with you.*

Book of the Dead: In commemoration of our faithful departed, at each Mass through November, 'The Book of the Dead' is available in the church vestibule for inscribing the names of loved ones who have died.

Pastoral Council of St. Anthony Parish
The Pastoral Council is a group of representatives of St. Anthony Parish who gather to advise and assist the pastor in fostering pastoral activities in the parish, including visioning and planning for the future of the parish, assuring that all Catholics in the area are aware of the parish and its programs, promoting religious education programs, liturgical life, and processes which are based on the Diocese of Helena guidelines. Current members include: Chairperson, Vicky Gordon, Bill Kopetski, Bob Coulston, Dick Giuliani, Linda Greiner, Geri Stewart, Patti Miller, and Traeloch O'Riordain. There is one seat open on the council. If you have considered joining the council, please contact Fr. Michael Drury, or the parish office at 543-3129. Our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, December 7, 2017 at 7:00pm in the Parish Life Center.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who contributed items for our parish estate sale fundraiser! To the Loyola students for cheerfully bringing the items from the church basement to the Parish Life Center (think of all those stairs!); to those who volunteered their time in organizing and pricing items, and to those who worked on the days of the sale—THANK YOU! Thank you for supporting our faith community!
