

October 29, 2017 – Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Whoever loves me will keep my word;
my Father will love him and we will come to him,
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Matthew 22: 34-40 When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him,

"You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
and with all your mind.

This is the greatest and the first commandment.

The second is like it:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: In today's Gospel, Jesus is challenged about the greatest commandment. Listen carefully to the language in today's first reading from Exodus, which prepares us to hear Jesus' answer. The first reading addresses some of the political situations in our own nation, in our world today. Jesus' simple reply, rooted in the Old Testament mandate, is a challenge to all of us. Love of God and love of neighbor have not changed in two thousand years.

Question of the week: Because we only love God as much as the neighbor we love the least, whom do I need to look at differently this week if I hope to look more like God?

*I love you, Lord,
my strength*

October 29, 2017

"Let us prayerfully support our Catholic and Lutheran Communities of Montana as they gather this Monday evening with our Bishop to embrace a very special moment between Lutherans and Catholics throughout the world. Occasioned by the joint document of the two churches, "From Conflict to Communion," they will gather in prayer, memory thanksgiving and confession. With our common faith in Christ we look ahead to common witness and a continued journey forward for the sake of our shared mission to the world.

Prayer for All Saints Day

All you holy saints of God, we join our prayers of praise to yours this day.

With you, we sing of God's goodness, rejoice in God's mercy and celebrate God's incredible love.

Teach us to live as you lived—always thinking of others, always recognizing our weakness, always rejoicing in God's gifts, always closely following Jesus.

Blessed are you, happy are you, all you holy saints of God.

Pray for us that someday

we too may be among God's holy ones. Amen.

- Gwen Costello from Blessed Are You!

All Souls' Day

I am the Resurrection,
I am the life;
to believe in me means life,
in spite of death,
and all who believe and live in me shall never die.

- John 11: 25-26

Living Saints

St Anthony Youth Ministry group (Shai and her students) has prepared a new 'Living Saints' event just in time for Halloween and All Saints Day. They recruited various members of the parish to dress in costume and present a saint of their choice. There will be several 'Saint Stations' to visit along with activities (coloring pages and wall posters) for all ages. They are presenting this Sunday, October 29th from 9:45-10:45am in the Parish Life Center downstairs on the carpeted side. Please come and support the youth ministry group through this fun event on Sunday at 9:45am. Coffee, hot chocolate, and donuts available. What saint do you want to be for next years event??

All Saints Day is a reminder that all of us, living and dead, are united in a living community with Christ and one another

Book of the Dead:

In commemoration of our faithful departed, at each Mass through November, "The Book of the Dead" is available in the church for inscribing the names of loved ones who have died.
