

October 8, 2017 – Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Alleluia! Alleluia!

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord,
to go and bear fruit that will remain.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Matthew 21: 33-43 Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: Today we hear another parable, this time about the landowner who plants a vineyard. Note the last verse, in which Jesus declares that the kingdom of God 'will be given to a people that will produce its fruit'. The task of building up that kingdom was given to us at our baptism. Let us resolve to produce its fruit in lives that bring about peace, harmony, and justice, even in everyday situations. If not the kingdom will be given to others who will.

Question of the week: Does the 'peace of God that surpasses all understanding' describe the life that pulses through my heart these days?

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Thank You!!
THANK YOU!!!

Thank you to everyone who attended our International Potluck last Sunday. We had a great turnout of delicious ethnic dishes and we're grateful for everyone who contributed a piece of their heritage. A special thanks to the Knights of Columbus for their taco bar, to the Event Planning Committee for organizing and staffing the event, and to everyone who helped make this event a success.

If you would like to join the Event Planning Committee to help put on other events, please sign up using the Time and Talent sheets. We have a lot of fun together and could always use more help!

The Faith Relations Committee of Habitat for Humanity of Missoula invites you to tour our homes in the Franklin to Fort Neighborhood in the 2200 Block of Burlington Avenue on Sunday October 8th from 1- 3 pm. Featured homes are the 2017 builds with the Ellison and Janes families on Burlington Avenue, as well as viewing the future location of our 2018 builds around the corner on Schilling Street. This is an exclusive opportunity not only to tour these beautiful and well-built homes, but also to meet and talk with the families who will soon be moving in.

Area churches and faith communities have been among the many important partners in our ministry. Working with HFHM is one way for a congregation to be servants of God's love through a fun and valuable partnership to put faith into action.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

for October

Lord Jesus Christ,
As we begin to shift from summer schedules
to autumn demands, teach us to recognize you,
and help us follow you amidst our busy life.

Open the Scriptures to us...

that we may know you, see you, hear you –
in the voices of friends and family,
in the ministries of our parish,
in the proclamation of the Word,
and in the Breaking of the Bread.

Teach us to be good stewards,
that we may use your gifts wisely and care for all those you place in our path.

Encourage us, when we are overwhelmed.
Strengthen us, when we are frightened.
Challenge our complacency.
Help us make this new season
a time of spiritual renewal, hope,
and action to proclaim the Gospel
in our words and in our deeds.

In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen.

Marriage Encounter

Married couples – Consider doing something great for yourselves and your marriage. A Marriage Encounter weekend involves 15 – 20 couples. A series of presentations are given by a team of Catholic couples and a priest. The focus of the weekend is the couple, not group sessions. The presentations allow each couple a rare opportunity to look at themselves as individuals, then look at their marriage and relationship to each other, and finally to look at their relationship to God, the church, and the world. After each presentation, the husband and wife have time in the privacy of their room for their own personal discussion.

THE BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD

During the Month of All Souls, many parishes have the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which community members and visitors write the names of their beloved dead. The Book of the Names of the Dead was inspired by the ancient practice of recording the dates of the deaths of loved ones in a necrology, a public record or registry of death. This practice provides the living with an opportunity for healing and consolation in the face of grief. The Book of the Names of the Dead is usually displayed from the solemnity of All Saints until the beginning of Advent. It is left open for people to write the names of their deceased loved ones and for others to read the names, remember, and pray for the repose of their souls. Some parishes place The Book of the Names of the Dead near the vestibule or gathering space. Others display the book near the baptismal font with the lighted Paschal candle nearby, symbolizing that the deceased have shared in the waters of Baptism, dying with Christ and rising to new life. Placing the book by these waters gives us hope that our beloved dead now share in Christ's Resurrection. Parishioners may be invited to bring framed pictures of those who have died to be displayed near or around The Book of the Names of the Dead. Votive candles can be lit. Holy cards, icons, or art images of favorite saints can also be placed there, as well as autumn leaves and fall flowers. Remembering all of these men and women who have gone before us, "marked with the sign of faith," helps us better understand and appreciate our faith in the Christ our risen Lord who conquers sin and death and brings new life to all. St Anthony's Book of the Names of the Dead will be made available on the main table of the vestibule in mid-October.

FALL MINISTRY OF HANDS

St. Anthony and St. Francis Xavier parishes are again collaborating in the Fall Ministry of Hands Project

If you are an elderly or disabled parishioner in need of help with autumn chores, please contact St. Anthony Parish at 543-3129, or Pam at St. Francis Xavier at 541-6041, If you are able to volunteer to provide assistance to those in need, please contact one of the phone numbers noted above.

This is a wonderful stewardship project to help people who can no longer do some chores on their own.

Preparation for Part Two—
Parish Input and Prioritization

Save the date!
October 18, 2017
6:30pm
St Anthony Parish
Parish Life Center

In our upcoming we will review the feedback from throughout the Diocese that was gleaned from Part One of the Parish Input Process. That feedback reports on the initiative that were recommended for inclusion in the next five-year Pastoral Plan and brings together the input from our parish and parishes throughout the Diocese as they met in the spring. At this meeting we will consider the list of proposals from broad diocesan feedback and recommend our top priorities to the Diocesan Pastoral Council in the next step of identifying and focusing the initiatives that will take the diocese forward in these next five years. ALL ARE WELCOME even if you were not able to be part of Part One of the Parish Input Process.

PARISH INPUT SESSION RESPONSES

The following items surfaced in Deaneries or, in some cases, throughout the Diocese, as items for consideration in the new five-year Diocesan Pastoral Plan.

1. Vocation Promotion—Diocesan Priesthood
2. Priestly Presence
3. Vocation Promotion—Diaconate
4. Vocation Promotion—Religious Life
5. Diocesan Communication
6. Adult Faith Formation
7. Family Faith Formation
8. Youth Ministry/faith formation
9. Young Adult Ministry/faith formation
10. Evangelization
11. Promote diocesan and parish resource sharing
12. Explore and share programs and resources designed to support aging members
13. Support Social Justice outreach
14. Facilitate sharing of Financial Information/Communication
15. Increase Diocesan visibility in parishes/deaneries

We will be considering 4-5 top priorities and determining:

1. Why should this initiative be a priority for the Diocese now?
2. If this initiative is included in the new Pastoral Plan, what, concretely, do you hope will be the result?

*“Shepherd us in ministry and mission;
strengthen our bonds of unity with the whole Church.
Send us forth to love and serve that all may be lifted up by the hope of a world made new”*

DID YOU KNOW??

Did you know that St Anthony Parish has a variety of medical items for loan to parishioners as needed? Items include: crutches, walkers, cushions, bath stools, etc. Please let us know if you are in need of an item. We might just have what you need!

THANK YOU to all who contributed socks and underwear for our Gary Turbak Memorial Back-to-School Clothing Store here at St Paul Lutheran Church. We were able to provide a top, a pair of jeans, a whole package of socks and underwear, and a pair of shoes to more than 350 children who were invited to the event. It was heartwarming to watch children having fun picking out their own clothes. Clothes that were not chosen at the event were taken to Missoula Public School Office to be given to the Home Resource Centers at several schools. Thank you for your generosity! God bless you!

One Million Rosaries for Fatima Centennial celebration

Saturday, October 14, 2017 will be the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady's final apparition in Fatima, Portugal. On this very special day there will be a 12:00 PM rosary at the grotto at St. Francis Xavier Church. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us!

CARROLL COLLEGE PARISH SCHOLARSHIP OFFER Award Year 2018-2019

Carroll College is pleased again to offer a prospective student active in St Anthony Parish a Carroll College scholarship, named in memory of the deceased priests of the Diocese of Helena and the Diocese of Great Falls-Billings.

This $1,000 scholarship is applicable toward full-time tuition at Carroll College for the upcoming academic year. Only one newly accepted student per parish may receive the scholarship each year.

Carroll requires that the recipient be a student planning to attend Carroll for the first time in the fall of 2018. Receipt of athletic scholarships will reduce or may cancel this award.

Application is available for download from the Carroll College website at: carroll.edu/parishscholarshipapplication

If you have questions, feel free to contact Tina Wagner by phone at 406-447-5466 or email at: twagner@carroll.edu.
