

December 31, 2017 — Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts;
let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.

Luke 2:22-40 When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord.

When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Question of the week: Do I display the attributes described in today's readings when relating to my own family? As we are all brothers and sisters in Christ, do I show these qualities in my relations with friends, coworkers, strangers?

Blessed are those who walk in His ways

ST. ANTHONY PARISH 1921-2017

December 31, 2017

St Francis of Assisi Prayer
Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
where there is hatred let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
Lord, may I not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
Because it is in giving that we receive,
in pardoning that we are pardoned.

KINDNESS

The differing treatment of men and women in scriptural passages often presents difficulties today. It helps to consider that society was quite different two thousand year ago. But Saint Paul's Letter to the Colossians has wonderful guidance, directed to women and men alike: be gentle and patient, compassionate and forgiving. Act out of love, the love the Lord has shown to us. Sirach's words as well are instructive to any age: revere and comfort your mother and father. One word that appears in both reads is kindness, truly a quality to show to our sisters and brothers in any era.

Offering Envelopes

Your 2018 Offertory Envelopes are available on the main table in the church vestibule!

Those who use the direct payment method will also have a set of offertory envelopes containing the Holy Day and special offertory collections.

Please help us pass-the-word-along as this saves the parish hundreds of dollars in postage fees. If you currently are not signed up for giving envelopes and would like to be, or if you do not find your envelopes, please contact Matt at the parish office. If you would like to simplify your method of giving, please consider the direct payment method.

Did you know St Anthony Parish has a variety of medical items for loan to parishioners as needed? Items include: crutches, walkers, a wheelchair, cushions, bath stools, etc. Please let us know if you are in need of an item. We might just have what you need!

Anointing Of The Sick

If you have a serious illness or are anticipating surgery, please contact Fr Michael for the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

Please remember that Last Rites are not the Anointing, but holy Communion, given as 'Viaticum' which means 'on the way with you'. When giving communion as 'Viaticum' the priest or minister prays that the person be welcomed into eternal life.

'Viaticum' can only be given to those who are conscious and can be given frequently, even daily, when the person is dying.
