

January 21, 2018—The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Discipleship is living everyday to the glory of God in front of other people and inviting them to join you on the journey.

Alleluia! Alleluia!
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the Gospel.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Mark 1:14-20 After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: There is an urgency in today's readings. Nineveh will be destroyed if the people do not repent within forty days. Saint Paul tells the Christian community in Corinth that "the time is running out". Jesus proclaims, "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand". Deadlines can inspire us to action. As we listen to the readings today, imagine how the folk addressed by Jonah, Paul, and Jesus responded to this urgency.

Question of the week: How do I live my life as a disciple of Jesus? Do I share the good news through my words and actions?

disciples. it's who we are.
discipleship. it's what we do.

*Make known to me
your ways;
teach me your paths.*
