

January 28, 2018—The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light; on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death, light has arisen.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Mark 1:21-28 Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: In the first reading we hear God promise Moses that God will raise up a prophet like him, 'and will put my words in his mouth'. Mark then presents Jesus as being that prophet. He astonishes the people of Capernaum by teaching at the synagogue with authority, then encountering a man with an unclean spirit and immediately driving the unclean spirit out by his command.

Question of the week: What kind of 'unclean spirits' afflicting some people do I encounter? Do I risk becoming unclean myself when encountering those who are afflicted? Can I overcome that risk?

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
