

February 25, 2018—The Second Sunday of Lent

From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard:
This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

Mark 9:2-10 Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: The faith of Abraham is tested in a most extreme way in the first reading today. So too will the faith of the disciples be tested during the time leading up to Jesus' death and resurrection. We know what awaits us at the end of Lent, but the disciples did not and their faith wavered. But Paul tells us that because of Christ's death and resurrection, we can easily have faith in our salvation. After all, if God was willing to allow Jesus to die for us, "how will he not also give us everything else along with him?"

Question of the week: In the Gospel, God says, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." What is Jesus saying to me? What is Jesus asking me to do?

Second Sunday of

I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

A Litany for Lent

We fast from judging others,
but feast on patience.

We fast from apparent differences,
but feast on unity of all life.

We fast from words that pollute,
but feast on words that affirm.

We fast from complaining,
but feast on appreciation.

We fast from bitterness and anger,
but feast on forgiveness and mercy.

We fast from discouragement,
but feast on hope.

We fast from suspicion,
but feast on trust.

We fast from idle gossip,
but feast on purposeful silence.

We fast from problems that overwhelm,
but feast on prayer that strengthens.
