

April 1, 2018—Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Alleluia!

He is risen!

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed;
let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

John 12:12-16 On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the day: Today we reach the high point of the Christian year: Easter Sunday. Christ is risen! Jesus' mission is complete. Just as Jesus had promised would happen, God raised him up on the third day. Jesus has redeemed us and has given us the hope of eternal life. Today we will renew our baptismal promises, rejecting sin and acknowledging the acceptance of our faith. Let us die to sin so that we can live in new life.

Question of the week: How can I bear witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ in the world today? Can I take the risen Christ I receive in the Eucharist and make him present in my daily life?

*This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad!*

A Prayer for Easter

Almighty God,
you have created us anew.

Nailed to the cross for our sakes, Jesus gave his life so that we might have a share in the new life of his resurrection.

Now that we have been set free
from the power of sin and death, we pray to be transformed by the Holy Spirit into the image of your love.

In our Easter celebration, may we remember that we have not been saved for ourselves alone, but to become light for the salvation of the world and for your greater glory.
Amen.
