God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

John 2: 13-25 Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: Last week we heard God speak to Peter, James, and John from the mountain where Jesus was transfigured. Today God speaks to Moses from another holy mountain. But we are challenged not to misunderstand. Jesus was misunderstood when he assured the temple authorities that he could raise it up in three days. This promise will be used against him when he is on trial. But as Christians, we know, as did Paul, that the wisdom of God is beyond all human wisdom.

Question of the week: How can I take the mercy and wisdom of God and pass it on to others in my day-to-day life? Am I providing an example of God's mercy in my relationships with others? Am I providing an example of God's wisdom by valuing what the world ridicules?
