

April 8, 2018—Divine Mercy Sunday

Alleluia! Alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord; blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia! Alleluia!

John 12:12-16 On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained. Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Question of the week: Whom can I forgive who has hurt me or someone I love? Can I put my trust in God, the author of all mercy? Can I believe that by forgiving my neighbor I am allowing the Spirit to work through me and am participating in the gift of divine mercy?

*Give thanks to the Lord
for he is good,
his love is everlasting.*

ST. ANTHONY PARISH 1921-2018

April 8, 2018

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY CELEBRATION

St. Anthony Catholic Church
April 8, 2018

2:00 pm Celebration Begins
(This time of prayer will not include a Mass)

Reception in Parish Life Center
(following the celebration)

Please bring a potluck hors d'oeuvres to share.

*Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest!
Glory, Glory, Glory to the King of Kings!
Lord we lift up your Name,
with hearts full of praise;
be exalted, O Lord my God!
Hosanna in the highest!
Glory to the King of Kings!*

St. Anthony Parish joyfully congratulates the following who were baptized and/or confirmed during our Easter Vigil service:

Todd Lorenzen, Colleen Ireland, Kim Castor
Caleb Connolly, Ann Kimble, Brianna Combs

Please continue to support them with your prayers.

A special thank you to the sponsors, families, and RCIA instructors for their assistance.

We belong to Jesus Christ the moment we rise from the waters of Baptism bearing his name.

IT TAKES A PARISH!

Thank you to everyone who participated in and assisted with our Holy Week services and Easter celebrations. Thank you for sharing in the Passion of our Lord and in the celebration of Christ's Resurrection.

In His rising from the dead, Jesus has given us the power to rise above ourselves, may we continue to walk in the light that brightens the path of our faith.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God.
