COLLECTION REQUEST

If you make a contribution without your church envelope, would you write your envelope number on your check? It really helps the collection counters. If you don't know your envelope number, just call the parish office and they'll look it up for you. Thanks for your consideration and for your generosity!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES

Religious Education Classes will begin at 6pm on Wednesday, October 4, 2023, in the Parish Life Center and will continue each Wednesday until May 1, 2024. Classes are designed for children from Preschool through High School and the whole family is welcome. Registration forms will be available soon!

We will have a First Communion/First Reconciliation Class, a Confirmation Class and a Youth Group/Family Class. Visit our website to learn more about each class! Class time is from 6pm to 7pm and a family style dinner is served at 7pm. If you have any questions, please email Sarah Roberts at st.anthony.msla@gmail.com.

A BIT OF HUMOR

The world's richest man is dying. He made peace with that but what is bothering him so much is that no one in the afterlife will know that he has amassed such a colossal fortune. On Earth, everyone knows he's a self-made man who built his huge fortune from scratch, but he can't take it with him. Not that he could spend it, of course, but just to SHOW everyone what a great success the poor boy had become.

He broods over this so much that his guardian angel is worried. One night the angel flies to Heaven to consult Jesus. Jesus says "Well, you know earthly wealth has no place here."

The angel replies, "I know, but he's been such a good man. He was a selfless man on so many counts, he did so much for charity and ran his business humanely. He's only human. He can't help having this little quirk. Isn't there something we can do to ease his mind?"

Jesus thinks a moment. "All right. Let's look him up in the Book of Life." The Book shows this man's life, his struggles and accomplishments. Jesus is moved to tears. He tells the guardian angel, "Find a discreet way to tell him that I will allow him to bring just one suitcase. And he can fill it with whatever wealth he ASSE International Student Exchange Programs is currently looking for great Host Families for exchange students attending local high schools in the upcoming 2023-24 school year.

ASSE students come to the U.S. with their own insurance and spending money, eager to learn about America through their host family and the local community.

Whether you are a young family, retired, a single parent, or empty nesters, hosting one of our students from countries like France, Italy, Ukraine, Denmark, and many others presents an extraordinary opportunity to personally experience their cultures and values while sharing your own knowledge about the United States.

If you're interested, email elena@asse.com to start your host family application without commitment, of course.

chooses. At the moment of his death his suitcase and its contents will be brought to heaven with him."

The angel goes down and delivers the message to the dying man. The guy is happy, but what should he bring? He can't settle down on only one thing. Our money would mean nothing to people from another time, jewels could be faked, stocks and bonds could not be traded so they'd be just paper. Finally it dawns on him: gold! Gold has been valued throughout history and never goes out of fashion.

He sends out for the biggest suitcase he can find, fills it with gold bars, and sets it beside his deathbed. Now he can die in peace, and he does shortly after.

True to the promise, he arrives at the Pearly Gates, suitcase in hand. St Peter greets him warmly and says "All right. Let's see what was so important to you that eternal life and bliss wasn't enough."

The man proudly opens the suitcase, stuffed with row after row of little gold bars.

St Peter stares at it, puzzled, and sighs in utter disbelief: "But...why did you bring pavement?"
