A BIT OF HUMOR

Poor Dave had spent his life making wrong choices. If he bet on a horse, it would lose. If he chose one elevator rather than another, the one he chose stalled between floors. The line he picked before the bank teller's cage never moved. And so it went, day after day, year after year. Then, once, it became necessary for Dave to travel to some city a thousand miles away and do it quickly. A plane was the only possible conveyance that would get him there in time, and it turned out that only one company supplied only one flight that would do. His heart bounded. There was no choice to make! And if he made no choice, surely he could come to no grief. He took the plane.

Imagine his horror when, midway in the flight, the plane's engines caught fire and it became obvious the plane would crash in moments. Dave broke into fervent prayer to his favorite saint, Saint Francis. He pleaded, "I have never in my life made the right choice. Why this should be, I don't know, but I have borne my cross and have not complained. On this occasion, however, I did not make a choice; this was the only plane I could take and I had to take it. Why, then, am I being punished?" He had no sooner finished when a giant hand swooped down out of the clouds and somehow snatched him from the plane.

There he was, miraculously suspended two miles above the earth's surface, while the plane spiraled downward far below. A heavenly voice came down from the clouds. "My son, I can save you, if you have in truth called upon me."

"Yes, I called on you," cried Dave. "I called on you, Saint Francis!"

"Ah," said the heavenly voice, "Did you call on Saint Francis Xavier or Saint Francis of Assisi?"

The logo for Missoula PaddleHeads features the word 'MISSOULA' in a small, orange, sans-serif font above the word 'PaddleHeads' in a large, stylized, green font with a white outline. To the right of the text is a cartoon illustration of a brown moose's head with large antlers, appearing to be in motion, with a baseball bat positioned behind it.

If you are unable to attend, but would love to support us in our fundraising efforts, buy a ticket and donate it back to us so that a family at the Family Housing Center can attend. Forward Rebecca the email with the ticket (Rebecca@micmt.org) and we will take care of getting it to the families.

Please share this link with family, friends, coworkers! And as always, thanks for your support!

TREATS AFTER MASS

COFFEE & DONUTS

Stop in the Parish Life Center after the 8:30 am and 11:10 am Masses and enjoy fresh donuts and coffee. It's a delicious way to get to know others in our parish and a great way to start your afternoon!

The Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) is a retreat designed for busy people like you. Even people with families and who work full-time can have this profoundly transformative experience because it takes place within the midst of your everyday life.

The heart of the retreat is daily prayer using Scripture and other materials provided by your director. Weekly spiritual direction meetings and monthly SEEL Retreat Evenings are integral to the retreat as well.

The SEEL retreat is for mature adult Christians living in western Montana. There's no cost to participate. "Initially I was concerned about the time commitment, as I felt my life was so busy. Then I was amazed at how daily prayer became a respite for me; something I looked forward to so much...My recommendation? Just do it!"

Learn more about the SEEL retreat and complete the application through the St. Francis Xavier Parish website: <https://www.sfxmissoula.org/spirituality>
