FAMILY PROMISE UPDATE

Family Promise is a volunteer organization that helps our Missoula homeless families with food and assistance at the Meadowlark Family Housing Center on 3rd Street. We will be hosting again the week of March 17-23, Sunday-Saturday.

Thank you to all the volunteers who have already signed up and committed their time to help out!

However, we are still in need of one more volunteer to Evening Host on Saturday, March 23, 8-10pm.

Also, we need two volunteer hosts each night who will help with the Family Fun Activities:

Monday, March 18, 6:30-7:30pm, story time and board games.

Thursday, March 21, 4:45-6pm, crafts.

Won't you consider helping out? If you would like to join us, please contact the church office to receive the sign up. New volunteer training provided.

Thank you for your continual support of Family Promise, an important community outreach program.

FREE BOOK ON THE EUCHARIST

Every Sunday from 9:45-11:00 am there is a Bible Study in the Parish Life Center focusing on the sacraments. Last week, the sacrament of the Eucharist was explored and explained in depth to help us understand spiritually what the Eucharist is all about. We celebrate the Eucharist daily and every Sunday but do we understand and believe its meaning?

St. Anthony Parish invites each parishioner to take the book in the back of the church entitled Beautiful Eucharist by Matthew Kelly. Please read and pray with it during the Lenten Season. It will definitely respond to so many of your questions.
