Let's not refuse the time to go to meet him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease."

*John Paul II's letter Dominicae Cenaе,
The Mystery and Worship of the Eucharist*

40 hours of Eucharistic Adoration are offered every week from 5am on Monday to 9pm on Tuesday. Currently there are a few hours that need to be filled to maintain continuous coverage during our 40 hour Adoration ministry:

A BIT OF HUMOR

There was a teacher trying to sell the tickets to the play of his drama club, and there was this student who was in a bit of a dilemma.

The teacher and he were great pals, and he really wanted to support him by buying a ticket to the play, but the play was held in a rather exclusive opera house and the tickets were not cheap. In addition, he had been saving for months to buy the new tennis shoes he desperately needed for tennis.

The choice came down to stop playing tennis, or disappointing a beloved teacher. Being a youth of faith, he decided to seek divine help. So he went to the statue of Mother Mary to pray late one day after school, when most everyone was gone. He went up to Mother Mary, knelt down, gathered his palms, bowed his head, and closed his eyes. He prayed.

"Oh Mary! Please help me in my time of confusion, what should I do? Buy my shoes and pursue my dreams, or buy the tickets, and uphold my friendship? Please help me dear Mother."

Coincidentally, at the same time, the teacher was about to leave after a late night of grading papers. Just as he was about to turn the corner to leave, he overheard the boy, loud and pious in prayer. Being the cheeky sort, he droned aloud as solemnly as he could. "Buy the tickets~Buy the tickets~"

The boy seemingly having heard this, opened his eyes and looked up in shock, then went back into prayer and repeated. "Oh Mary! Please help me in my time of confusion, what should I do? Please help me dear Mother."

At this, the teacher replied again, this time slightly more insistent. The boy was perplexed, so he tried his prayer yet again and the teacher repeated his trickery, with even more gusto! Finally the boy said in exasperation.

"Jesus, please! I am trying to talk to your Mother!"
