 Lord, and you will never leave me.”

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

The Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) funds the yearly needs of our diocese. It supports the work of our parishes and, wherever possible, expands the mission of the Church. ACA funds are crucial for priest retirement needs, new deacon formation, and education costs for our 14 seminarians. The ACA supports formation and catechesis in Youth and Young Adult Ministry, Campus Ministry, Family Life, Catholic Formation, and Catholic Education. From ministry to prisoners in Montana to the remote Guatemala Mission and School, ACA funds help serve the marginalized and impoverished. As donors, we actively participate in these ministries and works of mercy that bolster parish life and extend to the fringes of society and the depths of human experience.

This year's Annual Catholic Appeal, “Habemus Papam: Upon this Rock,” builds on our hope in Jesus Christ and is refreshed by apostolic succession. As we welcome our new pontiff, Pope Leo XIV, Jesus continues to build his Church through him, and importantly, with us. Thank you for helping us build the Church here and now!

Our primary goal is 100% participation from our parishioners. No gift is too small. There are postcards in the Church with more information on donating, or you can write a check and drop it in the collection. Registered parishioners will also be receiving envelopes from the Diocese in their mailboxes. The Diocese Goal for St. Anthony Parish is $48,700.

EVENT PLANNING MEETING THIS SUNDAY
