Divine Mercy Sunday, a religious observance mostly among Catholics is a significant time for reflection on the Christian faith. This year, it will be celebrated on April 12. Saint John Paul II, the Pope who instituted this celebration said, "It is a time when we are blessed with divine mercy as it reaches us through the heart of Christ crucified. Divine Mercy Sunday focuses on the gift that flowed from Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. His mercy and love that are freely given to humanity after such a betrayal. And we know today's world is in dire need of His mercy for the sake of the sorrowful passion. Have mercy on us and on the world."

You are all welcome to pray for our world groaning in labor pain (suffering, war and death).
